New Film Score for Lisa

We are excited to share the news that Lisa has just started working on a new film score schedule for release in early 2011.

Lisa is looking forward to using the creative possibilities of the film to showcase a new dimension to her already considerable film score work.

Lisa herself has described the score as one of the most important pieces of work I will ever create for film - so stay tuned for further information in the coming months!

New Agent for Lisa

Lisa is pleased to announce she is now represented by Maggie Rodford from Air-Edel Associates.

With offices based in London and California we look forward to working with Maggie and her team to secure some exciting film score opportunities heading into 2011.

Oranges and Sunshine - First Reviews Are In!

The Lisa Gerrard scored film, Oranges and Sunshine, directed by Jim Loach, made its debut at the 5th Rome International Film Festival recently.

We were told by Jim that the film was warmly received and that he expects an April 2011 release date for Australia.

Lisa will also be looking to release a soundtrack album to coincide with the films release.

You can view a short interview with Jim and lead actress Emily Watson taken from the Rome Film Festival here.

You can also read one of the first reviews by Variety here.

New Album for Lisa!

We are happy to announce that Lisa and up-and-coming musician Cye Wood have agreed to a joint digital release of a soundtrack album for their work on the ABC Television Series, On the Trail of Genghis Khan.

The digital album will be released jointly by Gerrard Records via our website and the ABC online store.

We expect the release date to be less than a month away so stay tuned for more details!

For more information on the series, check out the official website.

Balibo Wins Again...

The Lisa Gerrard scored film Balibo has won yet another accolade, taking out the public award for Best Film at the Sao Paulo International Film Festival in Brazil last week.

Balibo won the award from an incredible field of 475 films!
